

Sign up to volunteer for

Harvest Festival at Frogtown Farm!

<https://goo.gl/forms/yoXcM3p28zTXzXu02>

Come to Frogtown Farm for a fun-filled Harvest Festival! This is a FREE event featuring horse drawn wagon rides, food, and activities for all ages.

Enjoy fresh bread and warm harvest stew served in Frogtown Farm's outdoor kitchen. Stay for some music and games. Say hello to fall with your neighbors!

When: Shifts available on Saturday, September 22, 2018 from 8am - 4pm (event runs from 11am to about 2pm)

Where: Frogtown Park and Farm, located at 946 Minnehaha W., 55104. Festival exhibits and activities will be spread across the entire 13 acre park (including the 5 acre Farm site). Parking will be limited, so carpooling, biking, or busing is highly recommended.

What: Volunteers for the Harvest Festival will be needed throughout the day in shifts to assist with set-up, event activities, and tear-down. Set-up will include setting up tables, tents and chairs. Other tasks will include creating welcome areas and exhibits; assisting the visitors with way-finding; staffing welcome tents; assisting caterers; setting up event signage, monitoring zero waste stations and more. There will be also be volunteer shifts available ahead of event day to distribute posters, signs and flyer the neighborhood.

How to volunteer?

Fill out the form here:

<https://goo.gl/forms/yoXcM3p28zTXzXu02>

If needed: contact Frogtown Farm with specific questions and shift assignment at info@frogtownfarm.org or 651-600-3414.